

I would like to comment the following concerning Proceeding 02-278:

--The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

--Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home.

The annoyance of early morning and late evening solicitations has disappeared.

--Indiana's law has been effective. I use to receive over 15 calls per week. I rarely receive one call per week, now!